

Authors

Paládi-Kovács Attila — an academician, a Doctor of Ethnography, a professor, a research fellow at the Institute of Ethnographic Studies (Centre for the Humanities, Hungarian Academy of Sciences). Scientific interests: agriculture administration, livestock keeping, viticulture; ethnical and national communities; industrial workpeople, migrations and settling of the Ukrainians-Rusyns in Hungary.

Borysenko Myroslav — a Doctor of History, a professor at the Taras Shevchenko Kyiv National University. Scientific interests: urban culture; housekeeping history; history of ethnology.

Vorobiey Olha — a third-year postgraduate specializing in Ethnology. Scientific interests: Podillia's tangible culture, traditional attire in particular; transformation of dressing culture.

Holovko Oleksandr — a third-year postgraduate specializing in

Ethnology. Scientific interests: intercultural interplays; tangible and intangible cultures of the Ukrainian-Moldovan borderland.

Korus Olena — a first-year postgraduate specializing in Decorative and Applied Arts. Scientific interests: XXth-century Ukrainian light porcelain plastic art; ancient Ukrainian and Polish delft ware; XXth-century Kyivan monumental decorative art.

Mykytenko Oksana — a Doctor of Philology, a chief research fellow at the Ukrainian NAS M. Rylskyi IASFE Foreign Folklore Studies Department. Scientific interests: conventional folk culture of the Eastern and Southern Slavs; Ukrainian — South Slavic ethnocultural, folkloric and folkloristic relations; modern transformations of folk culture and identification issues.

Mushynka Mykola — a Doctor of Philology, a professor, a foreign fellow of the Ukrainian NAS, social and public man. He has been an initiator and founder of publishing activities at the Museum of Ukrainian Culture (Svydnyk). Scientific interests: Ukrainian studies; Ukrainian folklore of Priashivshchyna; postwar migratory processes; living and activities of West Ukrainian scholars and the Ukrainian emigrants of interwar period in Czechoslovakia; Ukrainian Sixtiers.

Onufriychuk Kateryna — a junior researcher at the Ukrainian NAS M. Rylskyi IASFE Ukrainian Ethnological Centre Department. Scientific interests: urban population's public mode of life and customary and ritual culture.

Yamborko Olha — Ph.D in Art Criticism, an associate professor at the Design and Art Theory Subdepartment of the Vasyl Stefanyk Ciscarpathian National University. Scientific interests: modern and folk ornamental textile; costume history; film art.